

Home School Learning – Day 23

Year group	5
Teacher	Mrs Campion
Date	Wednesday 10 th February 2021

Good morning everyone. Happy Wednesday to you all.

It's the final day for open homework day for topic, I would love you to take a photo of your projects, or attach it as a document and send it to me. We can then bring them in, when we are back together at school

How are your spellings going? I look forward to seeing you on Teams for our test on Friday.

Numeracy:

Flashback section of file - week 5, day 3.

Maths section of folder - watch the video linked to equivalent fractions (purple)

Video for equivalent fractions \(purple\) Complete the rest of the sheets for this section.

Equivalent fractions

Green Pen Challenge – Let's practise the fraction work we have done so far.

Turn to Y5 Fractions section in Green Pen part of file. Complete the first challenge, are all Rosie's fractions equivalent?

Literacy:

Reading Day

Read the chapter courage counts pages 218 – 232 then continue and read May you never know, pages 232-243.

How do you think you would behave if you were Esther? Can you understand why she behaved the way she did through the book or do you still think she is a bully? We still have children into today's society that have to leave their country. How could we make them feel welcome if they came to our school?

Topic Open homework afternoon,

Once you have finished your open homework, take a photo of it all, or attach it on a document and email it to me at teacher@damedorothy.org.uk

You can then bring your project in with you to show the class, when we return to school.

I have two great websites for you, so you can find out more interesting facts about WW2.

WW2 interesting facts and timeline

What it was like to be a child at war

Challenge: Look at your spellings again, complete the rest of the sheets. There are two Mr Whoop's sheets to do. Remember to start learning them off by heart, ready for your test on Friday. I look forward to seeing you on Teams on Friday for the spelling Test.